Agenda Item: Welcome and Introductions

David Lansner, Panel Chair

David Lansner, NYC Panel Chair, convened the meeting and welcomed all participants.

Agenda Item: Updates from NYC ACS

ACS Commissioner David Hansell thanked the panel members for their letter which raised concerns about the child welfare system in NYC. He encouraged the panel to send any additional questions and continue to engage in an open dialogue with ACS. Commissioner Hansell then discussed several issues currently being addressed at ACS including appropriate CPS workload. Commissioner Hansell then shared that ACS will be engaging in a citywide workload study. He also discussed ACS' increased investment in training, preventive services, identifying kin resources, and improving the experience in family court. Panel members then continued the discussion with First Deputy Commissioner Eric Brettschneider including more positive press opportunities, development of a data dashboard for preventive workers, and Child Advocacy Center policies.

Agenda Item: Updates on Advocacy Workgroups – Educational Stability

Raymond Toomer, Associate Commissioner; Derrick Hinds, Assistant Commissioner; Kathleen Hoskins, Assistant Commissioner and Jaime Madden, Assistant Commissioner updated panel members on the work of the Education Stability sub-committee. Immediate directives of the group include improving stability by eliminating barriers to providing transportation to school and creating a guide to education for foster parents. ACS is also working with the NYC Department of Education to improve policies for when potential cases of abuse or neglect are identified by school staff.

Agenda Item: OCFS Updates

Amy Papandrea

Child and Family Service Review/ Program Improvement Plan (CFSR/PIP) Submission

OCFS is working on revisions to the NYS Program Improvement Plan, based on feedback from the Administration for Children and Families.

Family Assessment Response (FAR)

No additional counties have agreed to implement FAR; however, no counties have discontinued the use of FAR. OCFS is in the process of transitioning contracted work on FAR implementation from the Butler Institute to the Center for Development of Human Services at SUNY Buffalo. OCFS is examining FAR data to identify FAR case outcomes and missed opportunities to track more cases to FAR. Panel members requested additional data on cases tracked to FAR.

Home Visiting

OCFS continues to use available funds to expand home visiting programs, especially in the NYC region.

Workload Study

Jennifer Goldman, WRI, provided a summary of the Statewide CPS Workload Roundtable.

Raise the Age Bill

OCFS did not have any updates on the implementation of the Raise the Age law.

Agenda Item: WRI Updates

Jennifer Goldman

Jennifer Goldman provided an update on the recent statewide Home Visiting Workgroup where Anne Heller, Power of 2, presented an overview of the innovative home visiting program based in NYC. Mrs. Goldman also reminded panel members to complete an updated confidentiality agreement form.

Agenda Item: Closing Business

David Lansner

Panel members discussed the recruitment of new potential members and topics for the next NYC CRP meeting in December including updates on the work of other ACS advocacy workgroups and anti- trafficking initiatives.

Mr. Lansner adjourned the meeting.
